Application for re-subdivision of the property at 77 Old Ansonia Road into a lot containing an existing house, a new building lot and other land designated as not a building lot.

Joseph Cass, 77 Old Ansonia Road stated that next to the existing house there is enough land for a building lot. The entire site is approximately 15 acres. He would like to establish a new building and designate other land which will not be a building lot. There was no public comment on the application and Chm. Strumello closed the public hearing at 7:25 p.m.
